Program: Club achievement night, members were recognized for their achievements and received their pins. Then, in TEAMS we made gratitude cards and Ceres placemats.

Old Business:

Achievement Night: Achievement Night was themed as The Wizard Of Oz, members who attended got to be recognized for all their hard work and received pins.

Pumpkin patch: The pumpkin patch went incredibly well this year! We were able to raise a good amount of money for the club. Thank you so much to everyone who volunteered to bake or took time out of their day to come out and work a shift.

New Business:

Goat Tree Cycling: The goat tree cycling fundraiser is one of our biggest fundraisers of the year. Volunteers drive around and pick up people's old Christmas trees. They are then fed to goats.

4-H Camp: 4-H Camp is a week long summer camp. There will be one camp this year rather than the previous two, Camp Tamarancho. Sunday June 28-Friday July 3rd, save the date!

Holiday Party: We need a bigger committee to help make decisions about the holiday party and plan it with our youth leader of the project Esther Hicks.

Presentation Day: County Presentation Day will be on February 7th this year. This is a great opportunity for youth members to learn public speaking skills and practice their presentation skills.

Announcements:

4-H hats: If you need to know where to put certain pins and badges on your hat, you can email Lindsay Maddocks for a diagram showing the proper placement.

County emails: Everyone should be getting emails from the county with updates regarding 4-H, if you are not, please reach out to Lindsay Maddocks to have that fixed.
